Student Feedback:

a. Cultural Feedback

Turkey is a country which has a lot of things to offer. Even if Ankara is not as historically powerful as Istanbul, it is a perfect place to travel around Turkey since it is located almost in the center of the country. As the capitol of Turkey, there are thousand of shopping areas, bars, or traditional bazars in which you can find interesting items to buy. Also, you can move throughout the city using buses, metro, taxi, etc. People is one the best things you can discover in Turkey. They are, among other things, very friendly and helpful. Finally, life here is incredibly cheap, above all, if you come from Europe.

b. Academic Feedback

Regarding the academic life, Hacettepe University has a big Campus which is unfortunately far away from the city center; taking metro is almost compulsory. Proffesors and assistances are really nice. They always offer their help to assist you in any matter. As for their educational level, Hacettepe University has a group of remarkably competent and high level proffesors of the country.
