International Perspectives in Feminist Ecocriticism

Edited by
Greta Gaard, Simon C. Estok, and Serpil Oppermann
Contents

List of Figures xi
Acknowledgments xii
Foreword xv
LINDA HOGAN

Introduction 1
GRETA GAARD, SIMON C. ESTOK, AND SERPIL OPPELMANN

PART I
Feminist Ecocritical Theory

1 Feminist Ecocriticism: A Posthumanist Direction in Ecocritical Trajectory 19
SERPIL OPPELMANN

2 Toxic Epiphanies: Dioxin, Power, and Gendered Bodies in Laura Conti’s Narratives on Seveso 37
SERENELLA IOVINO

3 Treating Objects Like Women: Feminist Ontology and the Question of Essence 56
TIMOTHY MORTON

4 The Ecophobia Hypothesis: Re-membering the Feminist Body of Ecocriticism 70
SIMON C. ESTOK
PART II
Feminist/Postcolonial/Environmental Justice

5 Streams of Violence: Colonialism, Modernization, and Gender in María Cristina Mena’s “John of God, the Water-Carrier”
CHIYO CRAWFORD

6 Saving the Costa Rican Rainforest: Anacristina Rossi’s Mad About Gandoca
REGINA ROOT

7 The Poetics of Decolonization: Reading Carpentaria in a Feminist Ecocritical Frame
KATE RIGBY

8 Re-Imagining the Human: Ecofeminism, Affect, and Postcolonial Narration
LAURA WHITE

PART III
Species, Sexualitics, and Eco-Activisms

9 Women and Interspecies Care: Dog Mothers in Taiwan
CHIA-JU CHANG AND IRIS RALPH

10 The Queer Vegetarian: Understanding Alimentary Activism
LAUREN RAE HALL

11 Sex, Population, and Environmental Eugenics in Margaret Atwood’s Oryx and Crake and The Year of the Flood
RACHEL STEIN

12 Down with People: Queer Tendencies and Troubling Racial Politics in Antinatalist Discourse
NICOLE SEYMOUR
PART IV
Apocalyptic Visions

13 Keep Moving:
   Place and Gender in a Post-Apocalyptic Environment 221
   CHRISTA GREWE-VOLPP

14 Queer Green Apocalypse:
   Tony Kushner’s Angels in America 235
   KATIE HOGAN

15 In(ter)dependence Day:
   A Feminist Ecocritical Perspective on Fireworks 254
   GRETA GAARD

Contributors 277
Index 283