SYLLABUS

Title of the Course: IED 151 (02) Introduction to Britain I

Year and Term: 2014-2015 Autumn

Class Hours: Wednesday, 13:00-15:50

Classroom: B8/B03

I. Aims and Objectives

This course introduces a survey of Britain from the beginnings of English society to Tudor England and a range of literary texts in the context of the social and cultural history of the relevant periods. In line with this, the course will explore the dynamic historical processes by which literatures of medieval and Renaissance periods were formed. In this regard, students should note that a good acquaintance with secondary reading related to the period and its literature is significant.
