Method of Instruction: The course is going to be in lecture form. However, class discussions will also be necessary especially when analysing relevant poems/texts. Students are expected to have their course materials (coursebook and textbook) with them. Class works and group works may also be carried out.

Requirements:

-Class attendance is obligatory. More than 11 hours of absence will be graded as F1.

-Students should follow the syllabus and come to the class having read the assigned material, having done the given assignments. Participation in class discussions is also necessary. Participation will have an impact on student's mark.

Assessment: The following criteria will be taken into consideration in the assessment of students' performance:

-Class participation, quizzes, and doing the given assignments	20%
-Midterm examinations	40%
-Final examination	40%

It should be underlined that those who will not be able to take 50 points (out of 100) in the final examination will fail the course. Moreover, students' English will be taken into consideration. In the grading of the examination papers, up to 25% of the total mark will be taken off for grammatical and writing mistakes. Those whose marks are F2 or F3 in the previous semesters can sit at the final exam provided that they attend both mid-terms.
